

The Institute for the Management of Information Systems (IMIS)

The Institute for the Management of Information Systems (IMIS) is an international association devoted to supporting and promoting the profession.

A registered charity, IMIS' role is to foster greater understanding of the importance of information systems management, working to enhance the status of those engaged in the profession and promote global higher standards

The IMIS Syllabus is divided into three grades

- Foundation Diplomas
- Diploma
- Higher Diploma

Foundation Diploma

- Communication Skills
- Arithmetic
- Computing Awareness
- Use of packages
- Book Keeping
- Office Practice

Diploma

- Information Systems Practice
- Business Fundamentals
- Communications and Business Technologies
- Programming and Web Applications
- Business Information Systems
- Information Systems Building

Higher Diploma

- Management Information Systems

- Information Systems Strategy
- Contemporary Information Systems Development
- Database Development
- Project Management
- Business Information Systems Project

Entry Requirements

Depending on what level of Diploma you are looking to work towards, IMIS qualifications have specific entry requirements. Below is a list of the requirements necessary for application eligibility.

Foundation Diploma

There are no entry requirements for this course.

Diploma

- Successful completion of the Foundation Diploma level examinations.
- GCSE (or equivalent) with passes in four subjects, including Mathematics and English at grades C and above (or equivalent).
- Candidates of 21 years of age and over with two years work experience relevant to computing or a related field will also be eligible. An employer reference will be required.
- Candidates of 19 years of age and over may be admitted on receipt of a letter, from the college where the student is registered to study for IMIS qualifications, attesting to their suitability to study at this level.

Higher Diploma

- Successful completion of the Diploma level examinations.
- BTEC National Certificate/Diploma in Computing.
- BTEC National Certificate/Diploma in a related subject with a significant computing element.
- GCSE (or equivalent) with passes in five subjects including Mathematics and English. A Level in a computing subject and one other A Level. Two passes at AS level may be considered in place of one A level pass.
- Other appropriate educational qualifications deemed equivalent to the IMIS Diploma level examinations.

Candidates that are 21 years of age or over with four years appropriate work experience relevant to computing or a related field may also be considered.